

REDUCED FEE!
NOW $38 INCLUDES COURSE
BOOK, HANDOUTS & ALL MEALS!!

Crossroads – East Winds District
United Methodist Church
Detroit Conference

Lay Servant Ministries Workshop
September 28 & 29, 2018

Columbiaville UMC – 4696 Pine Street; Columbiaville, MI 48421

Our fall weekend Lay Servant Ministries Workshop for the East Winds District [formerly Crossroads & Blue Water Districts] is coming soon! The workshop will be held at Columbiaville UMC, located at 4696 Pine St, Columbiaville 48421 on Friday, September 28th. Registration is at 3pm, the workshop activities are from 3:30pm to 8:00pm, and all day Saturday, September 29th from 8:30am to 5:30pm. Please invite your pastor, family, and friends to a banquet to be held Saturday evening at 6:00pm with a special commitment service directly afterwards.

First time applicants can sign up for the Basic course. Those who have already taken the Basic course can continue to strengthen and grow in the ways of service by participating in one of the Advanced courses. We invite you to register today by completing the registration form below, and returning it with the ~~$75~~ $38 fee.

May God continue to bless and strengthen your lay ministry of “Leading, Caring and Communicating”!

Courses offered are:

Basic — Participants are invited to consider the importance of exercising servant leadership skills, developing future leaders, and remaining rooted in spiritual practices. It offers guidelines for best practices as a church leader and outlines a number of ministries for lay servants. Facilitators: Rev. Dr. Tommy McDoniel & Ms. Rosia Anderson	Living Our Beliefs: the United Methodist Way — Explore a basic explanation of the special gifts of theology, beliefs, witness, organization and practices of the United Methodist Church as defined in The Book of Discipline. You’ll uncover a deeper understanding and experience of Christian faith as you embrace the United Methodist way. Facilitators: Rev. Jeffrey Jagers & Ms. Terry Brannon	The Method of Our Mission – This accessible book on polity uses a Wesleyan theological connection to help the reader understand the interrelationship of our beliefs, mission, and practice. The book explores the primary embodiments of The United Methodist Church - mission, polity and organization. Facilitators: Rev. Joel Walther & Mr. John Lund	Class Leaders: Recovering a Tradition — This course will explore the office of class leader in the Wesleyan Methodist tradition. It examines the need for recovering the lay pastoral ministry of the class leader for the twenty-first-century church. Facilitators: Rev. Maurice Horne & Ms. Jocelyn Urmanic
--	---	---	--

Lay Servant Ministries Workshop Registration – DEADLINE IS SEPTEMBER 24, 2018!

Basic: <input type="checkbox"/>	Living Our Beliefs: <input type="checkbox"/>	The Method of Our Mission <input type="checkbox"/>	Class Leaders: <input type="checkbox"/>
---------------------------------	--	--	---

Name:	Phone:
-------	--------

Address:	Email:
----------	--------

City/ZIP:	Church:
-----------	---------

I am active in my home church and regularly attend service a minimum of twice a month

Applicant’s Signature:	Pastor’s Signature:
------------------------	---------------------

My food restrictions are:

Make check ~~($75)~~ ($38) payable to Crossroads District Board of Laity. Include # of Guests for banquet ($12 ea.) Return completed Registration portion and check to Gerald Mowl, 4091 E. Maple Ave.; Grand Blanc, MI 48439. If you have questions, please call or email Claudia Bowers at (810) 394-5562 or crdistrict.LSM@gmail.com.