

“our light breaks forth like the dawn”

-Isaiah 58:8

Photo courtesy FEMA Liz. Roll

Break. Broken. Breaking. From North Carolina to California, Indonesia to Japan, our world has been ravaged by fire, flood, hurricane, and typhoon this year. However, Advent is about another type of breaking - the breaking in of hope, of light, of love.

God’s love breaking into our lives, into our world in Jesus Christ. When we care, when we share, when we reach into the broken places in the world, then, in the words of the prophet Isaiah, “our light breaks forth like the dawn” (Isaiah 58:8).

This Advent season, I invite you to let your light break forth like the dawn by sharing in response to natural disasters that have wreaked havoc on our world. Please join me in an Advent Offering that supports the United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR) for domestic and international relief, and to also care for those suffering hardship from natural disasters in Michigan.

Blessed Advent. Joyous Christmas. Thank you.

David A Baul

Presiding Bishop David Alan Bard

If giving using a check, please indicate “Bishop’s Advent Appeal” in the memo line.

“our light breaks forth like the dawn”

-Isaiah 58:8

Photo courtesy FEMA Liz. Roll

Break. Broken. Breaking. From North Carolina to California, Indonesia to Japan, our world has been ravaged by fire, flood, hurricane, and typhoon this year. However, Advent is about another type of breaking - the breaking in of hope, of light, of love.

God’s love breaking into our lives, into our world in Jesus Christ. When we care, when we share, when we reach into the broken places in the world, then, in the words of the prophet Isaiah, “our light breaks forth like the dawn” (Isaiah 58:8).

This Advent season, I invite you to let your light break forth like the dawn by sharing in response to natural disasters that have wreaked havoc on our world. Please join me in an Advent Offering that supports the United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR) for domestic and international relief, and to also care for those suffering hardship from natural disasters in Michigan.

Blessed Advent. Joyous Christmas. Thank you.

David A Baul

Presiding Bishop David Alan Bard

If giving using a check, please indicate “Bishop’s Advent Appeal” in the memo line.