The Clergy workshops will include videos, individual activities, and group discussions about the how clergy can leave well in their current church and enter with grace into their new churches. In light of the current social distancing and sheltering in orders, there will be discussions on how to do this in a new and different way.

The Administrative Assistants workshop will provide information on how to assist the outgoing and incoming clergy.

The P/SPRC workshop is specifically geared to help your team understand what is needed to assist and celebrate both the outgoing and incoming clergy. There will be information on things you may want to consider during this time of transition since it may be different because of the social distancing orders.

Center for Church Leadership

CLERGY

Answering the call again? Whether you are going into your first appointment or leaving after years in an appointment, you are answering God's call again.

The New Beginnings workshop is designed to help you through the transition. You are leaving the familiar and going into the unknown. You will be part of an exciting change and play an integral part in helping those around you deal with the change.

Administrative Assistant

You are a valuable person who knows what is going on in the office and the church. Plus, you know the administrative systems of the church. This workshop will give you information about how you will assist the outgoing and incoming pastors.

SPRC

You are the team that leads the transition. This workshop will help you learn the intricate details involved in the clergy transition. You will receive resources to help the outgoing and incoming pastors, your church leadership, as well as your congregation.

Cultural Competency

Each class will include a valuable Cultural Competency session to assist participants understand the dynamics of cross-cultural and cross-racial appointments during the transition.

This is a free event – There will be morning and afternoon breaks as well as a lunch break for the day-long workshops.
