

Adult Lent and Holy Week Resources

Are you seeking ways to get the adults in your congregation on the journey of Lent in this chaotic time? Check out these resources that can be used in person or online for adults in any stage of life.

COMING SOON! Watch for an upcoming Inter-Generational Lenten Calendar called “Upside Down Lent,” highlighting the people of the Michigan Conference United Methodist Church. The calendar will be available February 10, 2021 to help get you or your church started on a Lenten journey. #holdingspace

Adult Lenten Resources

Sanctified Art: <https://sanctifiedart.org/lenteaster-resources>

These art based resources provide products that assist with small groups, personal reflection, and worship content.

“At A Glance” Comparison Chart for Lent & Easter from Cokesbury:

<https://www.cokesbury.com/lent-studies-comparison-chart>

If you are interested in ordering curriculum from Cokesbury, please feel free to contact Michael Morley (mmorley@cokesbury.com). Michael is available to Michigan area churches to help with ordering, free shipping, and discounts.

Manna and Mercy Study Guide: <http://mannaandmercy.org/study-guides/adult-study-guide.html>

These resources crafted by a team leads participants through the basics of the book by Daniel Erlander “Manna and Mercy: A Brief History of God’s Unfolding Promise to Mend the Entire Universe.”

If you have any questions about adult faith formation resources please feel free to contact, Lisa Batten (lbatten@michiganumc.org), Kathy Pittenger (kpittenger@michiganumc.org) or Christy Miller White (cmillerwhite@michiganumc.org).