

MICHIGAN SCHOOL FOR LICENSE AS A LOCAL PASTOR

OVERVIEW

The purpose of the School for License as a Local Pastor is to foster the spiritual growth and skill development of persons called into ministry. Students share in collegial fellowship, worship, study and practical experience, which enable them to qualify for a License as a Local Pastor and service in a congregation. The school emphasizes practical preparation for ministry, and the development of attitudes that will lead to future growth by each participant. The focus will be on understanding the local congregation and leading the congregation – worship and preaching, sacraments, weddings, funerals, pastoral leadership, Christian education and formation, and pastoral care.

Courses are taught by qualified persons from the Michigan Area. Each faculty member is selected on the basis of their skills in leadership and their familiarity with the character, style, resources and life of various sizes of congregations.

This year the required eighty (80) contact hours of instruction will be achieved through a five-day retreat and weekend zoom sessions. Students are required to attend all 80 hours of instruction and complete all course requirements.

Students are expected to demonstrate openness to new learning and a growing faith. Those who show evidence that they are called by God and capable of leadership within The United Methodist Church will be given a Certificate of Completion.

Please note that attendance at this school is a requisite for a license, however, your participation does not guarantee that you will be granted a "License as a Local Pastor." Your license is voted on by the Clergy Session of the Annual Conference after you have completed all courses of this school, received the recommendation of the faculty and Director of the school, and the recommendation of your District and the Conference Committees on Ordained Ministry. (The Annual Conference may vote that a license be granted after the sessions of the Annual conference contingent on your successful completion of this school. You may ask your District Superintendent about this matter.)

 - Transportation to and from the retreat week.
 - Overnight accommodations at in-person weekend sessions
 - books / study materials

Michigan students receive a tuition scholarship, funded by the Annual Conference as part of the Board of Ordained Ministry budget. This automatic scholarship defrays the cost of instruction, facilities, meals, etc...

Some local churches / districts help with the costs of study materials, books and travel, but not all. You may ask your District Committee on Ministry or your local pastor for information. In all cases the student is expected to pay the cost of registration.

SECTION: LEADERSHIP AND ADMINISTRATION IN THE UNITED METHODIST TRADITION
FACULTY: Rev. Jenaba D. Waggy (waggyjd@outlook.com)

The United Methodist Church seeks to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world, but how? Part of the work of the pastor is the organization of the church, setting boundaries and guidelines for the smooth working of the Body as a whole. As United Methodists, we are bound by the Book of Discipline as an agreed-upon set of expectations about how that organization will go. It is a book, like any other, and contains both the details of how to run the church (what a parsonage should include, how many staff-parish relations representatives are needed, whether Special Sundays are required) and who the Church is striving to be (our theological history, whether we require doctrinal adherence, the deep Wesleyan commitment to grace). In this course, you will not become an expert on the Book of Discipline but will learn its contours and contents so that you can confidently use this as the resource that it is.

This syllabus represents a contract of expectations between student and teacher; any changes to it will be made in clear communication via email and class announcement. All written assignments are to be typed in 12 point Times New Roman or Arial font with one-inch margins and 1.5-line spacing. If there are any accommodations that need to be made, please contact me at waggyjd@outlook.com.

Required Texts

- A Bible in a modern English translation (NRSV, NRSVUE, ESV, CEB, or NIV are the most common)
- Book of Discipline 2016; this can be in physical form or the free and searchable PDF at <https://www.cokesbury.com/book-of-discipline-book-of-resolutions-free-versions>. If you choose to use the electronic version, make sure your device can retrieve it for class
- Polity, Practice, and the Mission of The United Methodist Church by Thomas Edward Frank (Abingdon Press, 2006)

Recommended Texts

- Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised (11th edition; PublicAffairs, 2011)
- Strengthening the Soul of Your Leadership by Ruth Haley Barton (IVP Books, 2018)

Course Goals

- Develop an awareness of the polity, structure, and connectional nature of the UMC as presented in the Discipline and understand the interrelationship of the various levels of decision-making and ministry in the UMC (local church, district, annual conference, jurisdictional, and General Conference)
- Demonstrate familiarity with the structural and administrative responsibilities of the charge conference, the church council, and the four administrative committees of the local church (§§ 243-252, ¶ 258)
- Be able to outline the necessary steps for the construction of a local church budget using the disciplinary responsibilities of the charge conference, church council, S/P-PRC, and committee on finance
- Appreciate the differences between Wesleyan doctrines and other Christian traditions, including a working awareness of the three types of grace (prevenient, justifying, sanctifying), the Wesleyan Quadrilateral, the General Rules (§102), and the concept of holy conferencing

Assignments

- Read pp. 11–24 (“A Brief History of The United Methodist Church”) and pp. 47–56 (“Our Doctrinal Heritage”) due by July 24, 2022
- Write a 1–2 page paper on one instance when the Book of Discipline has been mentioned or used in your ministry (not necessarily by you), what you knew about it, and how the book was used due by July 24, 2022
- Choose one of the Social Principles (Part V) and write a 2–3 page paper on the Wesleyan theology that principle draws on and how you as a United Methodist do or do not work that principle into your ministry due by August 1, 2022
- Read pp. 172–204 (Section VI: Organization and Administration) and write an outline of the committee structure of the church you currently serve, noting where they align and where they do not with the expected structure named in the section due by August 1, 2022
- Answer five short-answer questions to be assigned in July due by August 1, 2022

SECTION: CHRISTIAN EDUCATION FOR THE LOCAL CHURCH
FACULTY: Rev. Anita Hahn (glue4evr@yahoo.com)

Pastors serve as preachers and teachers. The pastor's involvement in the church's teaching ministry models to the congregation lifelong learning, spiritual growth, and transformation. The pastor's involvement in teaching emphasizes the importance of this ministry. Pastors need to know how different people learn, and incorporate various learning styles into their presentations. They also need to recognize the cultural and theological diversity of their students.

Required Texts (all are available from cokesbury.com)

1. Christian Education in the Small Membership Church by Karen Tye
2. Three Simple Rules: A Wesleyan Way of Living by Reuben Job
3. A Spiritual Formation Workbook: Small-group Resources for Nurturing Christian Growth by James Smith
4. Safe Sanctuaries Anniversary Edition by J. Melton (other editions are OK if they include children & youth)

Class Objectives

During our sessions on educational ministries we will explore:

- Ways to incorporate Christian Education beyond the classroom
- How to address multiple intelligences in worship and the classroom
- Tools for choosing and evaluating curriculum
- Foundations of spiritual formation
- Why theology matters

Assignments

1. Read Christian Education in the Small Membership Church. Based on your reading, write a 600-900 word typed paper responding to these questions:
 - a. Beyond the physical needs, what are some things that help the brain learn? Based on that, describe at least two things you could incorporate in each of the following to make it a better learning experience:
 - i. a worship service
 - ii. a mission experience
 - iii. a children's classroom
 - b. Consider the 5 vital qualities for Christian Education in a small membership church (p. 57). Choose THREE and give specific examples of how you could use them to strengthen a church's Christian Education ministry.
2. A Spiritual Formation Workbook - Read Session One to familiarize yourself with classic spiritual disciplines then COMPLETE EXERCISE 6 in session one to identify your strengths & weaknesses.
3. Read Three Simple Rules
4. Read part one of Safe Sanctuaries
 - a. Find out if your current church has a policy. If so, review it, and have it available to access at the weekend session.

SECTION: PASTORAL CARE FOR SPIRITUAL FORMATION
FACULTY: Rev. Erin Fitzgerald (Erin.LB.Fitzgerald@gmail.com / 616-510-7941)

“A spiritual leader has personal/spiritual discipline, an awareness of God in all of life’s circumstances, and knows the resources available—both written and personal—which assist in building up the congregation as a caring community.” (Course description provided by the UMC, General Board of Higher Education and Ministry) This course will help participants develop their “pastoral identity” and skills.

Required Texts

- Pastoral Care in The Small Membership Church, James L. Killen, Jr. (a volume in the “Ministry in the Small Church” series), Nashville, Abingdon Press, 2005.
- Healthy Congregations: A Systems Approach Peter L. Steinke, New York, the Alban Institute, 1996.
- Disciples Making Disciple, Steve Manskar (<https://www.goodreads.com/book/show/32956886-disciples-making-disciples>)

Please Read One of the Following:

- The Spirituality of Imperfection: Storytelling and The Search for Meaning Ernest Kurtz and Katherine Ketcham, New York, A Bantam Book, 1992, (reissue) 2002.
- The Wounded Healer: Ministry in Contemporary Society Henri J. M. Nouwen, Garden City, New York, Doubleday and Company, Inc., 1972.

Assignments:

- Write up two “pastoral care” situations. Please see the sheet of instructions for how to prepare a “Pastoral Care Situation Presentation.” The write-ups should be approximately five pages in length (typed, double spaced). You will need to bring enough copies of your write-up for each student in the class and the instructor. (Not all write-ups may be shared in class; this will depend on time constraints, and the number of students in the class. You need to be prepared to present, however, because one never knows for certain who might be selected to present.)
- Find out about agencies, professionals, counselors, physicians, etc., in your area that might be useful as referral resources for persons whose needs exceed your expertise and experience. Prepare a written list in whatever format might be most useful for you to use (3X5 cards, a long list, arranged by categories, etc.). In some counties, the Probate Court of the county has already prepared such a list, and these are available to pastors and other professional for a nominal fee. You might want to check that out in your county. Or, in addition, some other pastoral colleagues may have already begun to develop such a list of resources, and they would, likely, be willing to share their discoveries with you. Bring this resource with you to the retreat week.
- Listen to a podcast - choose one (<https://hospicechaplaincy.transistor.fm/episodes>)
 - August 2, 2021 - The Importance of Symbols and Rituals in End of Life Care (22 minutes)
 - July 12, 2021 - Helping Children Deal with Death (49 minutes)
 - December 1, 2020 - Interplay between Palliative Care, Faith, and Social Justice (37 minutes)
- Outline a plan for your own spiritual formation over a 12-month period of time. What will you do to tend to your own soul in the midst of your pastoral ministry? What will be a sign for you that you need to go and find the quiet center, take a pause or reset? This could include:
 - Covenant group
 - Bible study
 - Devotional reading
 - Journaling
 - Retreat
 - Counseling
 - Spiritual direction
 - Mentorship
 - Sabbatical (eligible every 7 years)

*Note that spiritual formation is an essential part of self-care, but different. Exercise, rest, and self-pampering are very important but do not necessarily fall into this category.

HOW TO PREPARE A PASTORAL CARE SITUATION PRESENTATION

If you are already serving in a pastoral setting, you probably have already had some pastoral situations to deal with (e.g., a parishioner in the hospital, the death of a parishioner, a parishioner-family crisis, a couple who wanted to get married, etc.) You could write up one or two of these situations. IN ALL CASES, DO NOT USE THE PARISHIONER'S REAL NAME. Disguise the situation enough so as to protect the anonymity of the parishioner. In your write up, include sections that address the following topics:

- 1) Who is the person (John Doe, Jane Doe), age, marital status, children, employment, relationship with the church, etc. (basic demographic information)?
- 2) What did the parishioner see from you? How did THEY describe the situation/problem?
- 3) What background do you know about the parishioner that may help to explain the emergence of the situation/problem?
- 4) How do YOU understand the situation/problem? (This may be different from the way the parishioner presents the situation/problem!)
- 5) What goals did you have for the way you intervened? How did you intervene? What did you decide to do? How did your intervention work?
- 6) How do you think you might follow-up with the pastoral situation in the future?

If you are not yet serving in a pastoral setting, perhaps you could think of some fellow parishioners whom you might be able to interview about their experience of receiving pastoral care. You might ask them to share with you about the following:

- 1) Who is this parishioner (John Doe, Jane Doe), age, marital status, children, employment, relationship with the church, etc. (basic demographic information)?
- 2) What was the situation they were facing that prompted them to call their pastor?
- 3) How was the pastor helpful in the situation? What did the pastor do and/or say that facilitated healing and growth?
- 4) What did the pastor do and/or say that the parishioner thought was not helpful, or that might have got in the way of healing and growth (if anything!)?
- 5) Did the pastor make use of any other resources (referrals, etc.) during the course of the pastoral situation? If so, what were they and how did they help (or hinder)?
- 6) Have you noticed changes in this fellow parishioner as a result of this incident? If so, how?

Include in your write-up a part of the conversation (as best you can reconstruct it) which in your view represents a significant turning point in the conversation.

Please make enough copies for each class member and for the instructor. When we meet, we will work out a schedule for sharing these case studies/write-ups in class.

SECTION: PREACHING AND WORSHIP
FACULTY: Rev. Rick Blunt (rickblunt@hotmail.com / 231-633-7778)

[An online, Google Docs version of this document is available at <https://bit.ly/LTPpreachWorship>]

During the week we spend at Lake Huron Retreat Center, you will learn about several processes for sermon preparation, writing, and delivery.

Prior to attending the week at Lake Huron, you have two written assignments and some reading assignments. Please see below for details for each assignment on the next page.

You are to interview at least three other pastors about their process of sermon writing, so that you have a broader source of ideas from which you will develop your own style and process. You are also to observe a wedding, funeral, and another church's worship. These assignments will take time and advance planning. Viewing online is acceptable. I understand finding a wedding to observe is difficult, so please begin asking area pastors. If you can't find one, tell me what you remember about weddings you have previously attended. Please give them immediate attention.

During the week together, we will talk about the importance of long-range planning, use of the lectionary and/or theme-based preaching, types of sermons, how to edit materials for sermons, delivery techniques, integration of arts in worship, worship design and resources, and participation in lectionary or other collegial groups. There is a lot of material to cover. We will also cover preparing and presiding at funerals; weddings and sacraments will be covered during our weekend at my church in Okemos.

Following the weeklong part of the course, you will prepare a sermon and preach it to a "congregation" of your choice. Record the whole service and get it to me no later than October 15. I will review it and give you suggestions on an individual basis at our weekend together in November. We will talk in detail about this assignment during our week together and how you can accomplish it. Don't waste time or get anxious about this assignment now, please.

During the November weekend at my church in Okemos, we will practice the "how-to's" of sacraments and weddings. (You are not authorized to do weddings or preside at sacraments until after completion of LTP school and after receiving an appointment from the Bishop. DSA's do not have sacramental privileges or authorization to preside at weddings, so in July we'll focus on the things you can do if you're serving right now.)

Please note that the November weekend runs through Sunday afternoon; you are expected to be present the whole time. There will be a celebration of completion of the MSLLP at 3:00 p.m. on Sunday. You will want to invite family and friends for that service. There will be a break between class time and the beginning of the service so that you can get ready.

I am excited about this class. Preaching is, I believe, at the heart of parish ministry. It reaches the most people and is central to the faith. I am looking forward to sharing with you my process and a host of resources that can help you. I am already praying for you and our time together.

Preaching and Worship Assignments

First Assignment Is a Paper About Three Interviews

1. Fist Paper - Interview three (3) pastors and write a paper about the interviews
 - a. Format and due date
 - i. Assignment is due the first day of the school.
 - ii. It is to be at least two pages, no more than 8 pages. Brevity is appreciated.
 - b. Content
 - i. Ask the questions below of at least three pastors. Take notes during your interview. Compare the answers and write a summary paragraph containing your conclusions and insights on each question.
 - ii. I am not looking for a “word for word” verbatim of your interviews. Pick out the important parts of each interview and compare each pastor’s ideas and insights with others’, and then conclude with your own thoughts.
 - iii. Title each section with the Key Words (in bold & underlined below) from the questions below.
 - c. Questions
 - i. How much time do you usually spend in sermon preparation?
 - ii. Do you have a usual process you go through in sermon preparation? If so, please describe it.
 - iii. What resources do you find most helpful in sermon preparation? (Try to get specific names of commentaries, periodicals, books, Internet sites, and other resources. These can be shared with classmates.)
 - iv. How do you decide what scripture to use and what the sermon will be about?
 - v. How far ahead do you plan your sermons?
 - vi. How would you describe your style or type of preaching? Are you a manuscript, outline, or no-notes preacher? Do you stay in the pulpit or wander around?
 - vii. What are your biggest joys and greatest frustrations with preaching?
 - viii. What is your usual practice in regard to funerals? (Contacts with family, when and where; gathering material for the eulogy; resources; typical order of service, etc.)
 - ix. What is your usual practice in regard to weddings? (Counseling with a couple—how many times, content, resources; designing the service; policies; resources; etc.)
 - x. What has been your most difficult funeral or wedding? What helped you through it?
 - xi. What advice or suggestions would you offer a new pastor about preaching, weddings, funerals, and sacraments?

Second Assignment is Reading

2. Reading Assignments - These are to be read before arriving at the week-long retreat. You will not have time to read them during the week. I do not intend to repeat the material in the books, but will assume you have read the material and know it. If you have not, you might be lost. Please, take the time to read all the assignments; they are foundational to our time together.)

- From Pew to Pulpit – Clifton F. Guthrie, entire book
- In Unleashing the Word, Chapter 1, 2, 3, 4, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 15 and 16.
- In The Book of Worship, pages 12-53, 81-102, 115-127, 139-157, 224-237. Also, familiarize yourself with the other resources available throughout The Book of Worship.

Third Assignment Is a Paper About Your Observations

3. Observations and paper summarizing your observations

- a. Turn in on the first day of class:
 - i. A brief 1-page paper of when, where and what you observed and the two main things you learned by doing the observations.
- b. Keep your notes for discussion during the week and during our fall weekend.
 - i. Worship Service – take notes at a service you are not leading. Notice who moves when and where, how is the offering taken, who does what, etc. What is the choreography of worship? Notice the flow of the service: how is music used; speed of worship; rise and fall of voices, tone and mood; how does congregation participate. Notice the visuals in the worship setting. Note use of projection and if it is effective. Where are the awkward pauses and breaks? What works well?
 - ii. Funeral Service – attend a service of someone not related to you. Observe the order, where the pastor stands, and what he/she does. Be sure to time the service. If possible, attend the committal/graveside as well. If there are not many funerals in the church you attend or a nearby church, talk with a local funeral home director and explain what you would like to do. She/he will probably be happy to accommodate you.
 - iii. Wedding – again this should be of someone not related. If possible, attend the rehearsal. Many pastors would be happy to allow you to observe. Again watch for flow and details of movement, order, protocol, etc. Time the entire service and time the rehearsal. It is acceptable to observe a wedding at a location other than the church.

Required Resources

1. Bibles - Preachers need to have at least these three: (FOR OUR WEEK, bring only ONE)
 - i. The New Revised Standard (NRSV), Oxford edition with notes
 - ii. Bible of your choice, with notes
 - iii. A paraphrase like The Living Bible or The Message, again with notes
2. The United Methodist Book of Worship This you will need to own. I suggest you purchase a copy for your own library.

SECTION: MISSION AND EVANGELISM
FACULTY: Rev. Jeremy Wicks (revjwicks@gmail.com / 517-851-1494)

This section introduces students to the theology and practices of evangelism as an expression of the mission of God, lived and experienced through the context of the local church.

Through this section, students will:

- Develop a framework for a biblical and theological understanding of mission, incorporating our Wesleyan concern for balancing vital piety and works of mercy.
- Understand the ways in which the local church can be organized to build and coordinate mission.
- Know that communities are expressed through a diversity of cultures.
- Understand the pastor's role in modeling, promoting, and defining an evangelism process within a local context.

Required Texts

- Transforming Evangelism: The Wesleyan Way of Sharing Faith, Henry H Knight III & Douglas Powe, Jr.
- Unbinding the Gospel: Real Life Evangelism, 2nd Edition (Chalice, 2008), Martha Grace Reese
