

Task Force on Promoting Justice in the Middle East Offers Book Talk

Rooted in Faith and Justice: Christian Calls to Conscience & Cries for Peace in Palestine is the title of the book we will discuss on Tuesday, November 17, 2026, at 7:00 p.m. ET. It is edited by Rebekah Choate, Krista Johnson Weicksel, and Peter Makari.

Rene Johnson, a member of the Michigan Conference Board of Justice and the United Women in Faith Social Action Coordinator, will lead the discussion.

Rooted in Faith and Justice contains the voices of prominent Palestinian Christians who clarify the issues in the Holy Land. Among others, their topics include Christian Zionism, colonialism and settler colonialism, apartheid, and occupation.

There are five sections, progressing from historical, contextual, and religious backgrounds to modern-day Israel/Palestine and perspectives on how to move forward.

Each chapter offers clear, concise explanations of key concepts to ground our understanding of the conflict in scripture and to stand in solidarity with Palestinians.

The book is available at your favorite bookseller or at your local library.
